

WALKER'S STORE.

Dressmaking Reduced to $15 and $18.

To keep an efficient force busy during the proverbial dull months is this splendid reduction made. And a most enticing offer is it—so generous that you may be coaxed into having more than one frock, perhaps. The dresses to be made at $15 are street suits, while those at $18 are gowns suitable for visiting or calling. Where elaborate hand work is desired there will, of course, be a little extra charge, which is usual, even when regular price is asked. Separate skirts and waists, too, are reduced and beside, dress fabrics and trimmings. Surely a most advantageous time to consider dress needs. The following tells the dress goods and trimming little prices:

Entire Stock of Dress Goods at 15 and 25 Per Cent Off Regular Prices.

All evening fabrics, charming Broche Gauzes, Pompadour Muslins, Tissues, Tosses, Fillets and others, $1 to $10 a yard regular at ONE-FOURTH OFF THESE PRICES.

He Caused the Trouble.

(Philadelphia Press.)

"My boy doesn't seem to have got along here very well," said the office boy's father.

"Well, to be perfectly frank with you," replied the employer, "I must say no."

"Ah! What's his trouble?"

"He hasn't any trouble; it's the rest of us who have had that."

Wished Him Well.

"I have had a good many good jobs," said the political officeholder, "and I guess there's a lot of people who'd like to see me resign my present one."

"Well," replied one of his rivals, "I think most of us would prefer to see you in office."
